New season, new unsolicited art guide.
Get yourself prepped for Frieze Week 2025 with the Plaster team's hot tips for everything that's worth doing

Ok, strap in lads, it's that time of the year again. Diaries on the brink of implosion?
Events clashing like symbols? Or maybe you have no plans yet... In any case, calm down, Plaster has you sorted for what to see, where to eat, drink, shop, and listen to this week... and where to hide when it all gets too much.

We know you didn't ask, but you're getting it anyway.
